KEYPOINT INTELLIGENCE Buyers Lab Summer 2019 Pick Award

"The Xerox VersaLink C8000DT is an ideal choice for large workgroups looking for a colour printer to keep them productive and for high-quality output," said Kaitlin Shaw, Editor of Printer & MFP Evaluation at Keypoint Intelligence - Buyers Lab. "Users can download ConnectKey apps that can streamline workflows, enhance productivity, and lower costs, right from the touch-screen interface. And users can print from virtually anywhere thanks to the unit's flexible mobile print support, including Apple AirPrint, Google Cloud Print, Xerox Mobile Print, and standard NFC, which lets you print with a simple tap of your mobile device to the printer. IT staff will appreciate the printer's robust administrative tools, which give them tight control over a fleet of mixed hardware. The VersaLink C8000DT also offers finishing options that allow for stapling, booklet-making, and holepunching, further increasing versatility. Businesses get great performance and a robust feature set for a cost that's comparable to models in this class, making for a very strong value."

"With its perfect reliability performance, fast speeds in almost all of our tests, and impressive userfriendliness, large workgroups can rely on the Xerox VersaLink C8000DT to keep them productive," said Tony Maceri, Senior Test Technician at Keypoint Intelligence - Buyers Lab. "The intuitive touchscreen interface makes walk-up tasks quick and easy to accomplish, while its well-designed print driver makes desktop activity just as simple. Pop-up messages and feedback offered in the drivers help keep users informed of device status before they send jobs, helping minimize downtime even more. The device produced high-quality colour and black output that will easily meet the needs for general office use. All in all, the Xerox VersaLink C8000DT has everything high-volume environments could want in a colour printer."
